Jeff Huddleston
ASA, MAAA, CERA

Jeff is a Manager in the Insurance Services consulting practice at Deloitte Consulting LLP based out of the Chicago office. Jeff is a life and annuity product development and pricing actuary by trade. Recently, Jeff has worked extensively in the application of predictive analytics to core operations for life insurance and annuity manufacturers. Jeff has led many engagements with both traditional life insurance company clients and other non-traditional clients to apply actuarial and analytics concepts into client strategy, operations, and product offerings. Prior to joining Deloitte, Jeff worked for a major domestic life and annuity manufacturer in a variety of product development, pricing, and risk management roles.

Nate Pohle
FSA, CERA, MAAA, MBA

Nate is a Manager with experience in the life insurance and sports industries. At Deloitte, Nate has focused on the strategy and operations of life insurance companies, along with the future of the actuarial profession.
