Associate Actuary, Everence

Brian Miller, FSA, MAAA, is an Associate Actuary at Everence, a faith-based financial services firm that helps its clients live out their values in their financial decisions.

Brian has been with Everence since 2001, serving in various actuarial capacities. Currently he has responsibility for Life and Annuity valuation and reporting functions. Brian is also known around the office for his bobblehead collection. Brian believes that actuaries have unique skills allowing them to play a key role in using data analysis to aid decision-making across organizations.

Brian earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Applied Mathematics and Computer Science from Goshen (Ind.) College. He became a Fellow in the Society of Actuaries in 2009. Brian lives in Goshen with his wife and two children, and enjoys spending time with family and watching movies.
